

Dear Editor:

Aug. 28 kicked off one of the best weeks we've seen in Alpine in a long time. SPICEWOOD restaurant began serving their Sunday morning brunch and it was Fabulous! A menu with something for everyone, and a wonderful place for friends to gather. Then to top that off, LINE THAI opened for business on Monday the 29th! They are open from 11:00 to 8:00 SIX DAYS a week! Even on Mondays and Tuesdays! Their menu offers appetizers and an appealing array of meals. I can personally vouch for the Satay Chicken...delicious! And to add to all THAT abundance, Alpine now has a new hamburger kitchen with the new addition of Bock Burgers on Ave. E. I haven't had time to eat their personally, but I hear the burgers are delicious and they are also open on Mondays and Tuesdays starting at 4:00 p.m. Alpine is blessed!!!
